

Tax Evasion and Criminal Finances Act 2017 Statement

This statement is made on behalf of Simplify Moving Limited ( "Simplify") and its group which includes My Home Move Limited (03874320), Move with Us Limited and all current subsidiaries (together, the Group) pursuant to the Criminal Finances Act 2017.

This Statement has been approved by the Senior Leadership Team of Simplify on behalf of the Group. It has been reviewed and approved by each of the individual entities comprising the Group which have obligations under the Act.

Simplify conducts its business with integrity, transparency and fairness and values its reputation for ethical behaviour and financial probity.

Simplify is committed to the prevention of the facilitation of tax evasion as we recognise the importance of fostering positive business relationships and of maintaining the confidence of our clients and our business partners. We will not engage with any business who does not share our values and our commitment to preventing tax evasion offences.

Simplify undertakes due diligence on all its clients and employees and has procedures in place to detect and prevent the facilitation of tax evasion offences. We promote compliance with the requirements of the Criminal Finance Act 2017 internally and across all areas in which we have influence.
